Buy in the Beautiful Gray Tract

One of the best subdivisions in San Mateo County. No adobe; the finest of soil—loam and gravel; beautiful oak trees, and situated on the Woodside road. This road is soon to be made into a beautiful boulevard. NOW is the time to buy. Only a few blocks from the new electric line. Don't let all outsiders come here and buy up the best. These lots are all 50x109 feet; no 25-feet frontage here. I want you to call at the office and I will show you what these lots are, and I would like to see our own people get in on the ground floor—not all strangers. About forty of these lots have been placed on the market for $250 each; 10 per cent cash, remaining payments to suit purchaser.

NEARLY READY FOR BUSINESS

Trains Will Run Over New Route

OCTOBER FIFTEENTH NEXT

Bay Shore Cut-Off Will Save Five Miles in Distance and 25 Minutes in Time

Work on the Bay Shore Cut-Off has so far advanced that a time card for trains has been prepared and is in the hands of the printers. It is expected that the day of opening will be fixed for the 15th instant when this timecard will go into effect. By this schedule, arrangements have been made for 38 trains each way between San Francisco and San Jose, giving practically a half-hour service during the business portion of the day. Fast trains will under the new card, run to San Jose in one hour and ten minutes leaving San Francisco at 8 a. m. 3 p. m. and 4 p. m., and from twenty to thirty minutes will be the reduction in the time of commuters trains.

The train leaving San Jose at 5:40 a. m. saving between this city and the terminus 25 minutes, San Mateo 22 minutes, and Burlingame 21 minutes. The train arriving at San Francisco at 8 a. m. makes a saving for San Jose of 30 minutes, Redwood 29, San Mateo and Burlingame 27.

The train that leaves San Jose at 6:50 a. m. is a slower train but saves from 10 to 15 minutes in time.

The train that leaves San Jose at 7 a. m. arrives in San Francisco at 8:40. This train leaves Redwood at 7:44, San Mateo 7:59, and Burlingame at 8:03.

Returning from the city in the evening, a corresponding reduction in schedule will be made.

The service via the old route will consist of local trains between San Francisco and South San Francisco, via San Bruno, the trains describing the end of a loop with Baden at the junction and San Bruno, South San Francisco and Tanforan in loop. Thre local commuters' trains will arrive in the morning and four return in the afternoon. The total service each way will be eight trains daily until the exact business remaining tributary to the old route can be determined.

Several million dollars have been spent since January, 1905, in creating this new double-track water level highway into San Francisco. On the old route over San Bruno mountain the road ascends 298 feet and every train of more than six coaches require two engines in getting into the city. The maxium elevation on the new route is twenty feet and the maximum grade in feet per mile 15.84.

There are five double track electric-lighted, concrete-walled, brick-ceilinged tunnels, a total of 9,949 feet long, carved and blasted almost all the way through massive serpentine with seams of clay and stretches of quicksand, shale and hard sandstone. The tunnels weredug at the rate of four feet a day.

A bridge 3,500 feet long spans Islais creek. At Visitacion bay 140 acres of land have been filled in and the largest freight terminals west of Chicago established. Here are a spectacular "hump", switching yard a forty-stall roundhouse, machine shop etc.

An average of 3,000 men have been employed on the work for over two years, and probably $5,000,000 in wages alone have been disbursed in San Francisco.

With the opening of the cut-off, a period of unexampled prosperity will be begun on the peninsula and in a few years a continuous town will be seen along the road as far as San Jose

Under the new schedule the morning trains north bound will run as follows:

Leaving Redwood 5:53, arrive San Francisco 6:40.

Leave Redwood City 6:52, arrive San Francisco 7:40.

Leave Redwood City 7:12, arrive San Francisco 8:00.

Leave Redwood City 7:32, arrive San Francisco 8:20

Leaves Redwood City 7:56, arrive San Francisco 8:40

Evening trains, south bound, leave San Francisco at 3, 3:20, 4, 4:20, 5.30, 5, 5.50, 6, 6 10. Over the old route there will be three trains to San Francisco in the morning and four returning in the afternoon.

The mid-day schedule over the new route has not yet been arranged

Teachers' Institute

The San Mateo County Teacher's Institute will be held on October 21, 22, and 23, It is expected that the meeting will be held in the Assembly room of the Sequoia Union High School. The program has not yet been prepared but the following will be a portion of it: The first evening, an entertainment will be given by the Stanford Glee Club and Mandolin Club. Second evening, a lecture will be delivered by Payson J. Treat, of the history department of Stanford University, the subject being "India" Mr. Treat has just returned from a years travel in the far east and is well qualified to dicourse upon the subject. Among the other lecturers who will appear before the teachers will be Prof. Thos. L. Heaton of University of California, Professors Cubberly and C. A. Dunniway of Stanford. Rebecca L. English of San Jose Normal School and R. W. Jones of San Francisco Normal.

At Work on Dumbarton Bridge

Work is going busily on in preparing the long Dumbarton bridge. Men of great experience are detailed by the company and are constantly upon the scene supervising the trestle work. The work so far has been entirely of lumber, piles, braces and long timber for the top, the cost already going up to the hundreds of thousands of dollars. When the center of the channel is reached, a steel drawbridge will be built to span the 300 feet of deepest water. There are two hundred men at work, divided in to three gangs, each under a separate foreman, and each working on a seperate section of the job. Four pile drivers are kept working at the same time, and the ends of the trestle are rapidly drawing together. The distance to be bridged is something near seven thousand feet. The company has built bunk houses and dining rooms for the men, who being mostly experienced sailors and bridge builders, receive from $90 to $125 per month. When the bridge is completed the distance from Niles to Redwood City, will be but seventeen miles. Senator Fair proposed this scheme of bridging at Dumbarton more than thirty years ago.

Death of Mrs. Kaleschke

The death of Mrs. Emilie Kaleschke Saturday last was a sad loss to the community as well as a severe blow to the children of the deceased. Mrs. Kaleschke has been a resident of this city for several years and having two fatherless sons was compelled to work hard to support and educate them. Being a very industrious woman and of very amiable disposition, she made many friends and soon was in position to fulfill her hopes of caring for her children. Ashort time ago she had a building erected and at the time of her dea which was caused by heart trouble she was living there. She had a host of friends who vied with each other in rendering assistance to her during her last moments, and deeply mourn her death. Two sons, Emil and Carl are left in sorrow, but they are comforted by loving friends and sincere sympathizers.

South City to Celebrate

The celebration which will be held in South City upon the completion of the Bay Shore Cut-Off promises to be a grand success. Everybody in that and the neighboring towns are enthusiastic in favor of making it such and the assistance of all the towns along the peninsula should also be freely given to the same end. The date of the celebration has not been set as the opening of the road is yet to be made public, although October 15th is definitely settled upon. A special train consisting of locomotive and caboose carrying officials of the road passed over the route Thursday making a thorough inspection and the report was very satisfactory.

COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER.

Saturday, October 5, 1907.

D. E. O'KEEFE.....EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

The people of the peninsula are very much interested in the approaching election in San Francisco. Should a good set of officers be chosen the metropolis is certain to go ahead rapidly in the way of building and developing its commercial interests; and, on the contrary, should grafters be elected the city will be retarded in its progress. The peninsula depends largely on San Francisco for its material wellfare and growth, and whatever retards one retards the other. It is to be hoped, therefore, that a good, clean set of officers will be elected to conduct the government of the city as it should be.

John T. Dare, United States Appraiser for the past ten years, has been succeeded by Senator Mattocks. Dare is an orator, who, in years gone by, stumped this valley every campaign for the Republican party.

Of course the airship came down the peninsula where homeseekers are coming in large numbers to build pretty homes and enjoy balmy breezes and an all-land route to and from the metropolis.

The Coast Advocate, published at Halfmoon Bay, has suspended publication. It was started by Romeo T. Jackson many years ago and was the oldest paper on the coastside.

F. H. Thorpe, backed by the board of trade, was instrumental in securing the spur track permit. He deserves the thanks of the people of Redwood City.

Petaluma is in the throes of an anti-saloon crusade, with the chances that the dives will have to go. The same is true of many other California towns.

Gompers demands that the authority of the courts to issue injunctions be taken away from them. Wonder why he does not advocate the repeal of all law.

No county in the state has a brighter future than San Mateo and no town in the peninsula has a future like Redwood City.

Sam D. Merk, the new editor of the San Mateo Leader, is giving the people of San Mateo a good live paper.

W. J. Martin's letter on another page contains some good common sense. Don't fail to read it.

Good highways and cheap transportation will bring thousands to this county.

Landlord vs. Tenant

Loren Coburn of Pescadero has brought suit in the superior court against Manuel Bettencourt and Virginio Marelli to recover the sum of $600 together with interest and costs of suit, for rent and moneys advanced.

SOUTH CITY IS NOT JEALOUS

Of Redwood City's Prosperity

SO SAYS W. J. MARTIN

In a Communication to Times-Gazette--He Predicts Great Things for Peninsula

The following letter from W. J. Martin of South San Francisco contains the proper spirit. Whatever benefits one section of the county benefits the whole county.

Editor Times-Gazette:—

Your interesting marked copy of the Times-Gazette received. I congratulate you on the energetic fight you and your associates have made for the betterment of Redwood City. While you remarked that South City would have to go some to keep up withRedwood City, I hasten to assure you that we are not at all jealous of any prosperity which comes to Redwood City; on the contrary I regard anything that tends to the development of Redwood City or any other city along the line of the Bay Shore Railroad as for the common good and a subject for common rejoicing. San Mateo County is the natural home center for all of San Francisco. Its accessibility has been our drawback for years. The tunnels have now been built and the gates are open and I am glad to see the Times-Gazette "ringing out the old and ringing in the new." Every town in San Mateo County should put on new life and all our newspapers have a duty to perform in instilling that life. You should also go after the Peninsula League to take up the question of commutation rates. The importance to our growth of cheap rail transportation at this time is so great that every energy should be devoted by the press and the people in that direction. Now that we have started to grow let's tear out everything which would tend to stunt or hamper us. The north end of the County is alive to the situation, but the whole County should act as a unit not only on questions of this character but on matters pertaining to the encouragement of industries in locating along our entire water front and the Bay Shore Road. Believe me, Brother O'Keefe, you can't devote the pages of your paper to better use than to these matters, with best wishes for your success, I remain, Yours,

W. J. MARTIN.

OLD LANDMARK TO GO

Old Building on Dumbarton Tract to be Torn Down

The old building, recently vacated by Henry Solen and now owned by the Dumbartonpeople, will soon be demolished. It is an old land mark and has an interesting history. It was erected in the early fifties and was one of the first houses built in this locality. Its spacious halls and rooms were often the scene of merriment and joyous laughter by wealthy society people of San Francisco. The first postoffice was established there and in the grounds around the building came the first circus to gladen the hearts of the vaqueros whose large heards roamed from the mountains to the bay. Joe Holder attended the circus and delights in telling how crude the performance was. However it was enjoyed by a large crowd. Later on a portion o the building was occupied by asaloon conducted by Mr. Welch, a brother of the late R. C. Welch. It was the headquarters for poker players and it is said fortunes were won and lost in a single night. As much as $1000 would be staked on one hand. Before the advent of the railroad the property came into the possession of Steinberger, a German Baron who entertained royally, and many were the gay scenees that took place in those days of long ago. From the Baron the place passed into the possession of Col. Jack Hayes, ater whom Hayes valley in San Francisco, is named. The Colonel was a greater entertainer than the Baron. His hospitality was known far and wide. Every Saturday evening the building would resound with merriment and laughter of gay spirits, the friends of the colonel. Hayes' fortune began to wane and he was compelled to sell the property It was sold to Jesse D. Carr, who aterwards became the Salinas millionaire. His daughter, who after some years later became the wife of Henry Seale, the Mayfield capitalist, was raised there. Many other noted people have lived there. It was finally bought by Hobart, the mining millionaire, who died years ago. The property has been owned by the Hobart estate for many years. The site will be subdivided into 25 front lots and there may arise unsightly buildings over the ground where the mansion of early days stood and around which hallowed associations and pleasant memories of the days that have flown linger.

Episcopal Bazaar

The ladies of St. Peter's Episcopal church have nearly completed arrangements for their bazaar and social dance. The affair, it has been decided, will take place during the first week in November, the exact date not yet havng been fixed. The event, besides the ordinary features of a bazaar will comprise a promenade and dance. This latter requires one of our public halls and arrangemments are now being made for the one to be selected, when the work of decorating will be undertaken. One of the conspicuous features will be the home-cooking booth—not a place where the products of the range may be eaten, but where visitors may purchase home-cooked articles and take them home. The affair promises to be one of the most interesting that has been given. The ladies will announce the date, place and price of admission, in ample time for every body to get them.

Thirty-One Deer Taken

Thirty-one deer, according to Game Warden Welch, have been killed in the county during the open season. A noble herd that would have better graced a beautiful landscape than to have garnished the ephemeral board of our epicures.—Santa Cruz Sentinel.

Death of Mrs. Moore

Mrs. Eli Moore of Pescadero passed away last Wednesday morning after a lingering illness caused by dropsy. She was an old resident of that place and highly respected. She was a sister of ex-Supervisors John McCormick. Besides her husband she leaves a son to mourn her.

The store will be in charge of Miss Emily Clack.

Dr. Carl G. Wilson, who won the automobile obstacle race during the Carnival at Palo Alto last week, generously turned over the prize money ($10) to the festival fund. Dr. Wilson had previously subscribed $10 to the fund.

James L. Flood has received from the East a Flat touring car that he used in traveling through Europe last Summer. The machine is one of the finest on the coast and cost $10,000. It was shipped by express on a special car and the express charges were $1032.

George Shine has rented the Mason cottage on Oak Grove avenue. He will be employed by E. L. Taylor the well-known horseshoer and blacksmith.

Hall, who was formerly teacher in the public school here and principal in that at Menlo Park, and for several years been connected with the United States Pension office in San Francisco, has resigned the latter position and taken charge of the school at Corte Madera, Marin County, where he has for a long time resided. Mr. Hall is a competent man in any position which he has held and the Corte Madera people are to be congratulated for securing his services. Mrs. R. C. Moodie is having a giddy week with her sister and brothers in Los Angeles. Mr. Moodie is working out the servant girl question in his ownway. He is reminded of the bishop who was asked to mind the baby. He said, "I can do it, but it is not my sphere." He is also reminded of a Scotch neighbor on the Vermont hills who always made the best of everything and whatever pertained to his family and his farm was all right. He used the expression, "I snorey" so much that it became his nick-name. One day his boys came in and said that Nan had twins. "I snorey I'm gled off it," said the old man. "She's a fine large sheep and may as well raise two lambs as one." But one of the lambs died. "I snorey I'm gled of it," said he. "One good large lamb is worth more than two little runts." Then the other lamb died. "I snorey I'm gled of it. There will be nothing to hinder her gettin' fat and selling for a good price in the fall." But at last Nan herself died. "I snorey I'm gled of it," said the optimistic old man. "She was a breachy old thing anyway, always breaking through the fences and leading the other sheep into mischief. We'er better off without her." The habit of thinking that whatever happens is all right did not originate when Mrs. Eddy tried to get it patented, but has been inuse ever since Adam and Eve found it necessary to adapt themselves to circumstances.

Mrs. Gertrude Ahlert, mother of J. P. Ahlert of this place, died at her home in San Francisco Thursday at the age of 80 years. The deceased was a highly respectable woman and had been a resident of San Francisco for over forty years.

Chris McCollough was taken to the Guild hospital in Palo Alto Monday and operated on for appendicitis. The operation was successfully performed by Doctor Wilson. The patient is getting along nicely and will recover.

P. H. McEvoy went to San Luis Obispo Thursday to bid on the construction of fifteen miles of mountain road.

Last Monday Peter Desmot met with a painful accident. He was preparing to make a trip in an automobile to San Francisco with James L. Flood. In turning the crank to start the machine it reversed and struck him on the back of the hand paralyzing that member. He will be laid up for some time.

The flower show takes place on October 18 and 19 in the mammoth tent in the Johnson field. It will be the best exhibition ever given by the Menlo Park Horticultural Society. There will be a sharp competition for all the prizes by the gardeners. There will be a valuable prize for the best table decoration and the award is to be made by the ladies who are the best judges of such exhibits. The display of carnations, dahlas, roses, ferns and potted plants will be elaborate and pleasing to the eye. Exhibits will be made by the gardeners of Burlingame, San Mateo, Fair Oaks, Menlo Park and Palo Alto.

BOARD OF TRADE MEET

Important Business Matters Attended To

The Board of Trade held its regular meeting Wednesday evening and passed unpon a number of important matters, Secretary Thorpe reported the granting of a permit by the town authorities to Stauffer Chemical Company to lay and maintain a spur track on Chestnut street, and the committee having the matter in hand was discharged.

J. V. Swift of the Telephone Committee, reported having a conference with a prominent telephone official about the poor service received by local subscribers, and the telephone company's representative promised a better srvice and the installation of a more modern plant as soon as the company could get into new quarters being prepared for it in the Titu building. The committee was continued in office until the promises of the telephone people were made good.

The matter of drayage and cartage charges placed upon consingments of goods from San Francisco business houses to local firms was discussed, but no action was taken on the subject.

In the matter of securing an appropriation for dredging the creek, Secretary Thorpe reported having had a very satisfactory interview with Colonel Bidder, of the United States Engineer Corps in San Francisco. Mr. Thorpe was of the opinion that there were fair prospects of getting an appropriation for straightening the creek if the consent of property owners along its banks could be obtained, and he was directed to take up the matter along that line.

The proposed bond issue for new water tanks and new City Hall was discussed and it was the consensus of opinion that the bond issue should receive the support of the merchants.. It was suggested that a portion of the bond issue be applied to the better housing of the two hose companies and purchase of additional fire hose for the firemen. While the suggestion, in the main, met with approval, it was deemed best not to incorporate it in the bond issue, but that the Board of Trade and fire department join hands in the matter and ask the Board o Town Trustees to make provision for such expenditures in the next and succeeding tax levies.

C. W. Eastin Weds

C. W. Eastin, at one time a practicing attorney here, was married in the Cententary Methodist church in San Francisco last Sunday to Mrs.Melissa Stewart.

The bride is a grandmother, though a very young one, and her daughter, Mrs. N. A. Magner, with the little granddaughter, was present at the ceremony. The wedding march was played by Miss Wildridge Adams.

After the ceremony the whole congregation was invited to the wedding breakast in the church parlors, which were prettily recorated with flowers. The ladies of the church assited in serving the breakfast, and a number of pretty gifts from the Epworth league, the ladies society, as well as from individual members, testified to the regard in which the bride and groom are held by the congregation. Jere Burke, who succeeded the late O. A. Hale as president of the San Jose-Los Gatos Interurban railway, has begun the erection of a fine home in the Taaffe ranch. Mr. Burke has for some time owned this property, which is located on the hills above Los Altos and affords a fine view of the valley.

Knew His Place.

The village carpenter had given so generously of his services and sound advice toward rebuilding the little memorial chapel that when it was completed all the summer people agreed that he should be asked to speak after the luncheon which was to follow the dedication exercises. The day and the carpenter's turn came duly.

"Ladies and gentlemen, dear friends," he began, his good brown face very red indeed, "I am a good deal better fitted for the scaffold than for public speaking."

Then he realized what he had said and sat down amid roars of laughter.—Youth's Companion.

FIRED ONLY JOKES.

The Way Judge Thacher Dodged a Challenge to a Duel.

Documents in the Congressional library at Washington show that when the establishment of the mint was under discussion in Washington's time there were some amusing debates in congress concerning the devices the coins should bear. There is one account of a squabble over the design for the silver dollar.

It appears that a member of the house from a southern state bitterly opposed the choice of the eagle on account of its being the "king of birds," and hence neither suitable nor proper to represent a nation whose institutions and interests were wholly inimical to monarchical forms of government.

Judge Thacher in reply had playfully suggested that perhaps a goose might suit the gentleman, as it was rather a humble and republican bird and would also be serviceable in other respects, as the goslings would answer to place upon the dimes.

This reply created considerable merriment, and the irate southerner, considering the humorous rejoinder an insult, sent a challenge to Judge Thacher, who proudly declined it. The bearer, rather astonished, asked, "Will you be branded as a coward?"

"Certainly, if he pleases," replied Thacher. "I always was one, and he knew it, or he would never have risked a challenge."

The affair caused much mirth, but was finally adjusted, cordial relations being restored, the irritable southerner concluding that there was nothing to be gained in fighting one who fired nothing but jokes.—Chicago Chronicle.

THE BRITISH BREAKFAST.

Trying In Its Monotony, Though the Food Is Substantial.

A distinguished author once described an unripe persimmon as a fine incentive to generosity, since we would rather give it to another than eat it ourselves. And perhaps the English breakfast may be likened to the early persimmon.

Monotony is the keynote of the early meal in a British household—not but that the food is good and substantial, but there is a sameness year in and year out about the dishes that is trying indeed to an American. Here is a list of eatables and drinkables made up from the breakfast menu of ten middle class English households and ten purely English hotels:

Porridge, served with sugar and milk; ham and eggs, eggs and bacon, grilled ham, boiled and poached eggs, fried sausages, dried fish (herrings or haddocks), dry toast, white or brown bread and butter, marmalade or jam, tea or coffee.

The man or woman who has been accustomed to break the fast with wheat cakes and maple sirup, followed by grilled bluefish and a juicy porterhouse or pork tenderloin, helped out by freshly ground coffee, cranberry jelly, Virginian honey and a choice of a hundred or more delights in the way of bread and freshly baked cakes, sits down to breakfast in England with a sigh.—From Derrick's British Report.

"What are they moving the church for?"

"Well, stranger, I'm mayor of these diggin's, an' I'm fer law enforcement. We've got an ordinance what says no saloon shall be nearer than 300 feet to a church. I gave 'em three days to move the church."—Judge.
